It's a problem we can all relate to

Maintaining control of personal documents and everyday paperwork in a digital world is challenging.

£50bn is currently unclaimed due to lost or forgotten documents in the UK.

And it's a problem for businesses too

Companies require confidential and sensitive personal documents to be shared, filed, retained, and kept secure for specific lengths of time.

Now there is a better way!

Fyio is an exceptionally simple and secure personal data protection tool for individuals and for businesses.
